

K-12 TEACHER INFORMATION AWARENESS

This document provides teachers with a variety of teaching and information materials available in electronic form. Electronic access of this document at <http://bcforestconversation.com> – Education/Teacher section.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Student benefits from forest field trips Video "A Walk in the Woods"

Introduction to the Healthy Forests-Healthy Communities (HFHC) initiative HFHC introduction postcard

National Forest Week-BC Coalition introduction (Coalition Introduction)

Canadian Institute of Forestry-Vancouver Section provides K-12 student field trip bus rental assistance grant as funds are available.

Framework of opportunities for students, teachers and parents to visit the forest and forest sector mills Capacity building framework.

STUDENT TEACHING RESOURCES

The HFHC website (<http://bcforestconversation.com>) Education-Teachers Section identifies K-12 Forest Education Collaborative member teaching resources and a search function to access areas of interest.

NFW-BC Coalition has produced a BCNFW Rack Card 2016 that provides basic forest facts.

The NFW-BC Coalition has developed a smartphone based (<http://bcnfw.ca>) App for identifying BC trees as one of the resources developed by National Forest Week Coalition.

PROTECTED LANDS AND WATERS IN BC map and statistics are located here.

Tree Canada provides seedlings for students and organizations promoting forests. This requires completion and submission of this order form Tree Canada seedling application form.

NFW-BC Coalition provides student handout materials as supplies are available (NFW promotional items REQUEST FORM 2016)

CIF Forest Success Stories CIF-Stories-Vol 2 and CIF-Success-Stories-From-Canadian-Forests-Vol3

Women in Timber coloring book Women in Timber Coloring Book for elementary grades

POST SECONDARY EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

The following are forest education related brochures from a few BC universities and colleges to provide an indication of opportunities for students;

UBC UBC Natural Resources Conservation brochure; UBC BSc Wood Products and Processing brochure; UBC BSc Urban Forestry brochure; UBC BSc in Forestry brochure; UBC BSc in Forest Sciences brochure

UNBC UNBC Wildlife-fisheriesF Brochure; UNBC ENVS brochure; UNBC brochure FEM; UNBC Biology brochure

VIU VIU Forestry Brochure

BCIT BCIT brochure

CAREER INFORMATION

ABC FP Forest Professional Infographic <https://ballisticarts.com/portfolio/case-study/abcfp-infographic/> describes the role of the Forest Professional.

To help teachers with providing students with information regarding forest related careers, two documents have been produced: Career day invitation suggestions; FOREST SECTOR CAREER JOBS.

Forest Products Association of Canada and Association of BC Forest Professionals websites provide information on career opportunities in the forest sector.

Contact Information

For more information contact:

Bill Bourgeois
President, New Direction Resource
Management Ltd
Coordinator, HFHC initiative

Phone: 604 924-0765
E-mail: www@telus.net

Abbreviations:

HFHC = Healthy Forests-Healthy Communities
NFW-BC Coalition = National Forest Week-BC Coalition
ABC FP = Association of BC Forest Professionals
CIF = Canadian Institute of Forestry
BCIT = BC Institute of Technology
UBC = Faculty of Forestry
UNBC = Ecosystem Sciences & Management